

Sunday 24th January 2010

8am – Tunarama Triathlon The Triathlon will be held at 8am off Laguna Drive at the North Lakes Marina. Registration is open from 7am. Pre-entry required by 12noon Saturday 23rd January. Entry forms available at all sporting stores and Port Lincoln Visitor Information Centre. The main Olympic distance event, part two of the Grand Slam Challenge, consists of a 1500m swim, 40km cycle and 10km run. Short course participants can enter either one, two or three lap events or as part of a team over the three laps. Each lap consists of a 200 metre swim, 5 km cycle and 1.7 km run. Contact Peter Sheridan ph 0427 821 235

8.30am – Camel Rides – Foreshore Pichi Richi Camel Tours offers rides during the day and one hour sunset rides on the beach opposite Grand Tasman Hotel.

9am - Tunarama Plywood Boat Building - Car Park, across from Civic Hall supported by Sika Australia and Home Timber & Hardware Watch a team of two build a boat from plywood before 11am, using just the limited tools they bring with them, and then hope it floats at 3:30pm for the big race. Cash prizes to be won. Open & Family Class. Materials Supplied. Entries close Friday 15/01/10

9:30am til late – Side show alley – foreshore lawns Check out sideshow alley this year with amusements and rides from The Showmen's Guild of SA. Don't forget to visit all the site holders on the foreshore lawns showcasing a variety of merchandise and information

9:30am til late - Barossa Helicopter Flights – Foreshore Barossa Helicopters' Flights available all day, $25 per person in front of the Boston Hotel on the beach

10am – 12noon – Come'n Try Dragon Boating – Dragons Abreast Port Lincoln – Foreshore Beach Come and meet the local team members involved in the fastest growing sport in Australia and enjoy dragon boating on the foreshore with Dragons Abreast Port Lincoln

10am – Tunarama Prawn Toss – Tuna Toss Arena supported by Spencer Gulf & West Coast Prawn Fisheries Assoc. This event is sure to be an entertaining one. Calling all 5-10 year olds to come and have a go at being the 2010 Prawn Toss Champion. Entrants MUST register at the National Pharmacies Information Booth before 9.30am. Registrations strictly limited to 50 entrants so register early

10am – 6pm Military Memorabilia Display – RSL Port Lincoln Hallett Place

11am to 4:30pm – Kid's Stuff - BankSA Marquee. Come and see the range of fun activities available for the kids to enjoy. Activities proudly organised by the Port Lincoln Combined Churches

11am onwards – Roving Artists – Circus Elements performances in juggling, stiltwalking, unicycling, fire twirling, with audience participation

11am to 4pm Regional Express Arts & Heritage Trail – Supported by Country Arts SA Various locations throughout the city. Embark on a tour of art, craft and furniture design at several venues, with a chance to win two return tickets Adelaide - Port Lincoln courtesy of Rex Airlines and two tickets to Country Arts SA touring production of Shorter + Sweeter as a major prize. See entry form in program for details

11am – The Funkees – Radio Rentals Festival Stage Poppi, Roxee, Turbo and Disco D are all about grooving and moving to the beat and will have you on your feet in no time at all!

11.30am – Antonio Villano – Radio Rentals Festival Stage a blend of traditional and modern songs in both English and Italian

12noon – Tunarama Prawn Peeling Competition – in front of Radio Rentals Festival Stage supported by Spencer Gulf & West Coast Prawn Fisheries Assoc. This event is lots of fun. Entrants are restricted to using one (1) hand only to peel their 2 prawns - using other parts of their body to assist them is permitted. Eg. teeth, shoulder, toes. The winner will be the first person to peel both their prawns and consume them. There will be 6 heats and 1 final and is restricted to 36 entries only. Age of entry for males and females is 16 years and over. Cash prizes. Entrants MUST register at the National Pharmacies Information Booth before 11.30am

12.30pm – Tunarama King Fish Toss – Tuna Toss Arena supported by Stehr Group. Come and try the King Fish tossing event, set to be an entertaining one. Calling all 11-15 year olds to come and have a go at being the 2010 King Fish Toss Champion. Participants MUST register at the National Pharmacies Information Booth before 12.00pm Registrations strictly limited to 50 entrants so register early

12.45pm – Shake It Up – Radio Rentals Festival Stage playing all your favourite party hits

1.30pm – Vogue Duo – Radio Rentals Festival Stage a blend of traditional and modern songs in both English and Italian

2pm – Oceantech Design - Cummins Marine Tuna Toss – Finals – Tuna Toss Arena 6 men and 6 women will be tossing to see who will be this year's Tuna Toss Champion. Cash will be handed over today. Yesterday's top 6 heat winners from each category have 2 tosses each with only the top 2 from each category taking home a prize. Come down and find out first hand – who knows, a record might even be broken! See how the fish really fly here in Port Lincoln

2.15pm – The Funkees – Radio Rentals Festival Stage Poppi, Roxee, Turbo and Disco D are all about grooving and moving to the beat and will have you on your feet in no time at all!

2.45pm Xtreme Kites & Paddle Stand Up Paddleboard Races – Childrens Finals – 8-12 years under adult supervision. Compete for $1000 of prizes. All equipment supplied. Yesterday's finalists must register before 2.15pm at Xtreme Kites & Paddle Marquee

3pm Xtreme Kites & Paddle Stand Up Paddleboard Races – Teenage Finals – 13-19 years. Compete for $1000 of prizes. All equipment supplied. Yesterday's finalists must register before 2.30pm at Xtreme Kites & Paddle Marquee

3pm – One Planet – Radio Rentals Festival Stage Relive world famous reggae hit songs guaranteed to get the party started

3.15pm Xtreme Kites & Paddle Stand Up Paddleboard Races – Open Finals. Compete for $1000 of prizes. All equipment supplied. Yesterday's finalists must register before 2.45pm at Xtreme Kites & Paddle Marquee

3:30pm – Tunarama Plywood Boat Race Supported by Sika Australia and Home Timber & Hardware Plywood Boat Race between Town Jetty and Tuna Toss Arena. Come and see competitors put their self made craft to the test. See who sinks first, and who holds it all together long enough to cross the finish line in a blaze of fun. A huge crowd pleaser. Be there early to get the best views

4pm – Come'n Try "Strip The Willow" – near BankSA Marquee The members of Southern District Pipes & Drums Marching Band will be giving lessons in this ancient Scottish dance routine. Should be lots of fun to watch, and also great exercise for young and old. Are your feet up to it?

4pm – Grand Tasman Hotel Beach Bods & Boardies Competition – Radio Rentals Festival Stage See the contestants strutting their stuff for cash prizes and vouchers. Free to enter and open to all over 18. Entry forms available from the Grand Tasman Hotel reception, local Surf Shops, or from the National Pharmacies Information Booth, and must be completed by 3.30pm on the day. Meet the contestants at the Grand Tasman Sandbar right after the competition

5pm to 7pm – Tunarama Twilight Sounds Supported by SeaSA – in front of BankSA Marquee Featuring the Southern Districts Pipes & Drums Marching Band, as well as the Port Lincoln City Band. The bands will combine for a few songs to give a unique sound to a variety of tunes, all played in the relaxing surrounds of the foreshore in the evening. BYO chair for a perfect picnic opportunity

5.15pm – One Planet – Radio Rentals Festival Stage Relive world famous reggae hit songs guaranteed to get the party started

7pm – McDonalds Search for a Singer Finals – Nautilus Theatre – Supported by Kate Lara Promotions Join the finalists of the Search For A Singer competition, as they vie to win the major prize. This could be the launching of someone's career, and a night to be remembered as you watch the local talented hopefuls belt out their best. Followed by performances from previous winners and a great band. Food selection and drinks available, downstairs only. Tickets will be available from the Port Lincoln Visitor Information Centre, 3 Adelaide Place. $20 downstairs, $10 upstairs. Not to be missed. A sure fire hit night

8.30pm – Cirque Du Cie – BankSA Marquee made possible by funding from Festivals Australia, this performance will portray the life cycle of a Southern Bluefin Tuna, in circus based skills taught in workshops held by Cirkidz, against a backdrop of costumery and sound fully crafted especially for the event by local artists and musicians. Be sure to grab a seat and enjoy this celebration of a very unique and wonderful event, the 'closing' of the SBT's life cycle, through local ingenuity and tenacity. This truly is something you will not experience anywhere else